CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

|

DATED: 20TH APRIL, 2005

P.C.:

By consent of parties petitions are disposed of in following terms:

1. The Petitioners shall make an application before the Divisional Joint Registrar within a period of two weeks from today, after submitting a copy thereof to the Respondents Nos. 2 & 3, to satisfy the Divisional Joint Registrar that they have complied with requirements of Section 154(2A) of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act.

2. The Divisional Joint Registrar shall decide that application with due notice to the Respondents Nos. 2 & 3 within a period of two weeks of the filing of the application.

3. In case the Divisional Joint Registrar finds that the Petitioners have not deposited 50% amount as required by the provisions of Section 154(2A), the Divisional Joint Registrar shall give two weeks time to the Petitioner to make up deficiency. In case the deficiency is made up within that time, the Divisional Joint Registrar shall, thereafter, hear the Revision application filed by the Petitioners on their own merits. In case the deficiency is not made up within the aforesaid period of two weeks, the Divisional Joint Registrar shall treat all the revision applications as disposed of.

4. Ad-interim order passed in these petitions shall continue to operate for a period of six weeks from today. The Petitioners shall be at liberty to apply to the Divisional Joint Registrar for continuation of the ad-interim order, in case the matters remain pending before the Divisional Joint Registrar.

Petition disposed of.
